

Handler Pours Anestasia Vodka At 319 West 39th Street

3/1/17

-- American-produced, small batch vodka company with award-winning crystalline decanter and worldwide distribution relocates headquarters from SoHo to Midtown Manhattan's West Side --

Handler Real Estate Organization announced today that it has arranged a headquarters relocation at its 319 West 39th Street property, with AnestasiA Vodka taking approximately 1,000 square feet on the second floor.

Founded by Yuliya Mamontova and with an award-winning crystalline decanter from famed designer Karim Rashid, AnestasiA Vodka is a family-owned and operated business whose vodka is produced in Bend, Oregon on a 24-acre farm and distributed throughout the world.

Handler Director Darell Handler and Associate Omar Javied represented building ownership in the transaction, and procured the tenant. The tenant represented itself in the transaction.

“AnestasiA Vodka is a world-class firm with an elegant product that continues to expand its global market share,” said Handler Executive Vice President Richard Farley. “They wanted a centrally located headquarters with convenient access to transportation and to occupy space in a building with other creative firms. We are thrilled to welcome them to 319 West 39th Street.”

Located between Eighth and Ninth Avenues, 319 West 39 Street is a 140,000-square-foot boutique office building catering to a wide variety of creative, TAMI, garment, and service tenants. The Handler-owned property is situated in the epicenter of new restaurants, retail, entertainment venues, hotel rooms, and new residential units.
